DATA TRANSFER REQUIREMENT

The processed data are indispensable for site browsing.

DATA RECIPIENTS

Data can be processed by external individuals acting as independent controllers, such as for example, supervisory and monitoring authorities and bodies. The data can be handled by independent third-party controllers through the installation of analytical and/or profiling cookies. For more information, please refer to the Cookie Policy.

The data can also be processed on behalf of the company, by external individuals designated as data handlers, who receive the necessary operating instructions. These individuals are basically divided into the following categories:

- a) Companies that offer services that are instrumental in pursuing the purposes indicated in this document (IT suppliers);
- b) companies that provide assistance in preparing market studies and statistical analysis

AUTHORIZED DATA HANDLERS

The data can be handled by employees of the company departments tasked with pursuing the above-mentioned aims, who have been explicitly authorized to handle the data and who have received the necessary operating instructions.

TRANSFER OF PERSONAL DATA TO COUNTRIES OUTSIDE THE EUROPEAN UNION

Some of your personal data could be transferred to recipients that could be outside of the European Economic Area. The Company ensures that processing of such data is compliant with applicable legislation. Indeed, transfers are based either on an adequacy decision or on the Standard Model Clauses approved by the European Commission.

RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT – COMPLAINTS TO THE SUPERVISORY AUTHORITY

By contacting the Legal Department at dataprotection@danieli.com, data subjects may ask the data controller for permission to access or cancel their data, correct erroneous data, add to incomplete data, and limit processing in the cases specified in art. 18 GDPR, as well as objecting to the handling in the case of legitimate interest of the data controller.

Moreover, in cases where data handling is based on consent or on a contract and is done using automated tools, the data subjects are entitled to receive the data in a commonly used structured format that is readable on automatic devices, as well as, if technically feasible, to transfer them to another data controller without impediment. It is understood that the data subjects who for the above-mentioned purposes prefer to be contacted via traditional means, may express their objection only upon receiving notifications via automated means.

The data subjects have the right to revoke at any time their consent given for marketing and/or profiling purposes, and to object to data processing for marketing purposes, including profiling connected to direct marketing.

The data subjects have the right to submit a complaint to the Supervisory Authority with jurisdiction in the member state in which they normally reside or work, or in the member state where the alleged violation occurred.
